ASIATIC ANNUAL REGISTER, dedicated, by permission, to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India; and also, by permission, to the Hon. the Court of Directors of the East-India Company—

PLAN OF AN ASIATIC REGISTER; or, Proposals for publishing annually, A VIEW OF THE HISTORY, POLITICS, COMMERCE, AND LITERATURE, OF HINDUSTAN; together with a connected Detail of the principal Occurrences, Civil, Military, and Commercial, of BRITISH INDIA. The first volume of which will be published January 10, 1800, price 10s. 6d. No money received but on the delivery of the work.

* * The Editors of the ASIATIC ANNUAL REGISTER, respectfully intreat orders for the work to be transmitted to Mr. DEBRETT, opposite Burlington House, Piccadilly, London; to whom all communications intended for the ASIATIC REGISTER are to be addressed.

The plan here submitted to the Public for its patronage is so general and extensive, and the execution of it requires so much information, assiduity and attention, that those who may be the most inclined to encourage the undertaking, will very naturally ask, whether men, who thus boldly promise, be sufficiently qualified to perform? and, whether such boldness does not rather belong to the rashness of ignorance, than to the confidence of knowledge?—To this the Editors can only answer, that they have resided in India, and have long made the subjects of the proposed work their peculiar study. Without, therefore, arrogating any superiority of talents, they think it would be unworthy of that kindness expected of a generous Public, as well as deficient in duty to themselves and to their Country, were they to permit a timid supposition of incapacity to deter them from doing what they deem may be beneficial to Society, and what, with the promised assistance of their friends, they trust they shall satisfactorily perform.
